

Day 1... cont'd

About 100 FIQ members are now set up in front of the National Assembly and are calling on the government to take action in order to have a negotiated settlement before the summer.

Message from the president

Régine Laurent is calling on all FIQ members to mobilize

“I am asking you to frequently check the web site and the Facebook page of the Federation to find out more about the vigil that is currently going on in front of the National Assembly. If you are unable to join us, wear your black t-shirts and ordinary clothes instead of your uniforms. We are denouncing the progress of the negotiations with the elected government officials; on your part, denounce it locally. The mobilization of all FIQ members is essential.”

Régine Laurent, President of the FIQ

The onsite demonstrators raise important questions on the government's intentions...

“Must one pay a sponsor in order to be heard in Quebec?”

“Charest: are you negotiating or continuing your dictatorship?”

▶ The activists are being heard to the tune of the negotiation song.

▶ The members of the FIQ demonstrate their solidarity and their anger with the government by chanting slogans
