

Grand Tour of Québec

Stay tuned!

After the return from vacation, the FIQ Executive Committee members will embark on a tour of Quebec health care institutions to inform the FIQ's members about the issues at stake in the negotiations with the government. It is essential for care professionals to mobilize collectively to obtain the working conditions they deserve.

Care professionals are invited to watch the bulletin board to find out all the details!

The FIQ at the Montreal Pride parade

Once again this year, the FIQ participated in the Montreal Pride Celebrations parade to emphasize the importance of continuing the struggle against discrimination based on sexual orientation. For the FIQ, participation in the parade was a festive and involving occasion to celebrate the recognition of the rights of the Lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender community and its allies.

If you haven't already done this, it's important to sign this petition and participate in the "Pass it on" operation. Just email the invitation to sign it to five friends or family members; then they'll pass it on to five more people, and so on!

Nearly two months after the launch of the petition at <www.appuyonslafiq.qc.ca>, nearly 35,000 people and nearly 500 organizations have added their voices to the collective voice of the FIQ care professionals. The list is getting longer every day!

Rally at CSSS Domaine-du-Roy

The budget dedicated to summer incentive premiums has run out!

On July 30, the care professionals of Centre de santé et de services sociaux Domaine-du-Roy demonstrated to denounce the end of the measures facilitating the continuity of clinical services for the summer period. These measures, in the form of premiums, had only been effective since June 23, and the employer has already announced that the budget has run out.
