

The Tackle Tax Havens group campaign

The Groupe Échec aux paradis fiscaux (Tackle Tax Havens Group), in which the FIQ takes part, launched its “Levez le voile sur les paradis fiscaux!” (Unveil tax havens!) campaign on April 29. They have also joined the Canadian movement launched by the Canadians for Tax Fairness group to demand that the Canadian and Quebec governments publish official estimates of the amounts out of the reach of the public treasury because of the tax havens used by big business and the wealthy taxpayers from here.

The public is invited, in the context of this campaign, to go to the www.echecparadisfiscaux.ca website to send a message to the Ministers of Finance for Québec and Canada, Nicolas Marceau and Jim Flaherty, to the Minister of National Revenue, Gail Shea, as well as to their MNAs. In addition to this campaign inviting the public to apply pressure on the governments, the Tackle Tax Havens Group will continue its work in order to claim more vigorous actions against the use of tax havens from the governments over the coming months.

Health Month 2013

The month of May is dedicated to celebration and recognition at the FIQ when it marks Licensed Practical Nurses Day, Nurses Day, Respiratory Therapists Day and Perfusionists Day on May 5, 12, 19 and 26 respectively. This year the theme is “Experts in care” in order to promote the immense know-how shown by the healthcare professionals every day.

OHS Committee editorial

“Be careful, it hurts...
 It can change your life!”

Don’t miss reading the latest editorial from the OHS Committee on the Federation website. It reminds you of the importance of knowing the post-exposure protocol in your institution so that your health is not compromised by your work.

Antiviolence internet kit

This kit contains practical tools for preventing, even eliminating, physical and verbal assaults of the healthcare professionals by the users, their loved ones, and visitors and for making the employer aware of the importance of taking the necessary measures to protect the staff and to make it a priority. It can be consulted on the new website of the Federation by clicking on “L’Essentiel”, then on “Trousse antiagressions” in the menu on the right.
